

A place to call Home

Alexander and his family are all smiles as they show the keys to their new home. They are very thankful for the generous donations that allowed FFIF to help provide a new place to live; one that Alexander can navigate easily, has ample space for his young family, is safe and secure, and has tile, septic and more.

Before

After

“

I am surrounded by people who are doing everything they can to see me back to normal. I feel the people supporting me always.

It is always people of God.

How am I going to give up? I need to give something back when I feel better; I wake up with that thought every day.”
